Section 6 – Data Privacy Notice - How we process your personal information

Who looks after your personal information?

Your personal information will be held by Canaccord International Fund Managers Limited, which is part of Canaccord Genuity group of companies (the Group), and is registered as a 'Controller' under the Data Protection (Jersey) Law 2018 as we collect and process personal information about you. More information on the Group can be found at www.canaccordgenuity.com

How we use personal information

We will use personal information:

To provide products and services, manage your shareholding in the Company, manage your relationship with us and comply with any laws or regulations we are subject to (for example the laws that prevent financial crime or the regulatory requirements governing the products we offer). For other purposes including improving our services and exercising our rights in relation to agreements and contracts.

To support us with the above, we analyse information we know about you and how you use our products and services, including some automated decision making.

You can find out more about how we use your personal Information, and in what circumstances you can ask us to stop, in our full privacy notice.

Who we share personal information with

Your personal information will be shared within our Group and with our service providers, so that we and any other companies in our Group can look after your relationship with us. By sharing this information it enables us to better understand our customers' needs, run accounts, and provide products and services efficiently. This processing will include some activities which take place outside of Jersey and/or the European Economic Area in jurisdictions whose data protection laws may not be as extensive as those which apply to us. In these instances we will ensure appropriate safeguards are in place to protect your personal information. You can find out more about how we share your personal information in our full privacy notice.

Where we collect personal information from

We will collect personal information from a number of sources including:

- information given to us on application forms, if you meet with us face-to-face, over the phone, by email or through the device you use and when new services are requested.
- from analysis of how you operate our products and services, including the frequency, nature, location, origin and recipients of any payments.
- from or through other organisations (for example, your financial intermediary, credit reference agencies and fraud prevention agencies).

You can find out more about where we collect personal information about you in our full privacy notice.

Our data retention policy?

We are committed to only keeping your personal data only for as long as we need to in order to fulfil the relevant purpose(s) it was collected for and for as long as we are required, or permitted, to keep it by law. In most cases, we will retain your personal Information for not less than 10 years after termination or expiry of our contract with you.

Please note, some of your personal information will be held on a shareholder register. As required by law, these registers are shared with the Jersey Financial Services Commission and may be subject to data retention periods / requirements that differ from our own.

You can find out more about our data retention policies in our full privacy notice.

Do you have to give us your personal information?

We may be required by law, or as a consequence of any contractual relationship we have, to collect certain personal information. Failure to provide this information may prevent or delay us fulfilling these obligations or performing services.

What rights you have over your personal information

The law gives you a number of rights in relation to your personal information including:

- the right to access the personal information we have about you. This includes information from application forms, statements, correspondence and call recordings.
- the right to get us to correct personal information that is wrong or incomplete.
- in certain circumstances, the right to ask us to stop using or delete your personal information.
- in certain circumstances, to receive your personal data, which you have provided to us, in a structured, commonly-used and machine-readable format and the right to transmit that data to another data controller without hindrance, or to have that personal data transmitted to another data controller, where technically feasible.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the data protection authority about the way in which your personal data is being used:

- In Jersey to: the Jersey Office of the Information Commissioner www.jerseyoic.org/raise-a-concern-options/

If you would like to lodge a complaint with us, or exercise any of your rights, please contact us using our contact details below. Where we rely on your consent to use your personal data, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. You can find out more about these rights and how you can exercise them in our full privacy notice.

Other individuals you have financial links with

We may also collect personal information about other individuals who you have a financial link with. This may include people who you have joint accounts or policies with such as your partner/spouse, dependents, beneficiaries or people you have commercial links to, for example other directors or officers of your company. We will collect this information to assess any applications, provide the services requested and to carry out credit reference and fraud prevention checks. You can find out more about how we process personal information about individuals with whom you have a financial link in our full privacy notice.

How we use credit reference agencies

In order to process your application we may supply your personal information to credit reference agencies (CRAs) including how you use our products and services and they will give us information about you, such as about your financial history. We do this to check your identity and prevent criminal activity.

We may also continue to exchange information about you with CRAs on an ongoing basis, information on funds going into the account and the balance on the account. CRAs will share your information with other organisations, for example other organisations you ask to provide you with products and services. Your data will also be linked to the data of any joint applicants or other financial associates as explained above.

How we use fraud prevention agencies

The personal information we have collected from you and anyone you have a financial link with may be shared with fraud prevention agencies that will use it to prevent fraud and money laundering and to verify your identity. If fraud is detected, you could be refused certain services, finance or employment. Further details of how your information will be used by us and these fraud prevention agencies, and your data protection rights, can be found in our full privacy notice.

Our full privacy notice

It is important that you understand how the personal information you give us will be used. Therefore, we strongly advise that you read our full privacy notice, which you can find at www.canaccordgenuity.com/49f9ab/globalassets/wealth-management-uk/documents/privacy-notice.pdf or you can ask us for a copy.

How you can contact us

If you have any questions or else require more information about how we use your personal information please contact our Data Protection Officer at:

Email: DPO@canaccord.com

Post: Data Protection Officer, Canaccord Genuity Wealth Limited, 88 Wood Street, London, EC2V 7QR.

Definitions

Applicant

The entity in whose name the shareholding will be registered.

Source of Wealth

This is distinct from source of funds, and describes the activities which have generated the total net worth of a person, i.e. those activities which have generated a customer's funds and property. Information concerning the geographical sphere of the activities that have generated a customer's wealth may also be relevant.

Source of Funds

AML Handbook defines SOF as 'The activity that generates the funds for a customer (e.g., salary, trading revenues, or payments out of a trust). Source of funds relates directly to the economic origin of funds to be used in a business relationship or one-off transaction.'

Third Party/ies

Person(s) for whom the Applicant is acting – the Applicant's customers.

Higher Risk factors

Higher risk factors include situations where the Applicant or Third Party/ies are:

- A person with a connection to an 'enhanced risk state' (as defined in the Jersey Financial Services Commission AML/CFT Handbook, Appendix D1)

- A person with a connection to a country identified as presenting higher risks (as defined in the Jersey Financial Services Commission AML/CFT Handbook, Appendix D2)
- Politically Exposed Person (PEP) including an immediate family member or close associate of a PEP
- A resident of or a person connected with a sanctioned country
- A person who carries out, or whose source of funds or wealth derives from a 'sensitive activity' as defined by the Jersey Financial Services Commission in Table 2 of its Sensitive Business Practice Policy
- A person regarded as Higher Risk due to the presence of other risk factors.

Tax Identification Number (TIN)

Is an identifying number used for tax purposes. Most countries issue them to identify their taxpayers and to help with the administration of tax affairs. If the applicant(s) are unable to provide a TIN, please provide an explanation why in the notes section on page 18.

Important – anti-money laundering regulations

In order to comply with the anti-money laundering guidelines issued by the Jersey Financial Services Commission, Applicants will be required to provide documentary evidence of their identity. If you are not an existing shareholder please provide one document from section A and one from section B for all parties who exercise control over the account, including individual and joint parties and any agents or holders of a power of attorney. All copies of identification must be certified by a suitable individual (by a suitable certifier, see below*). Please note that in certain circumstances we may request additional identification from any party included in this application.

Section A - personal identity

- Certified copy of a valid, current passport showing a clear photograph, that bears a signature and the expiry date
- Certified copy of a valid, current driving licence from a licensing authority that carries out an identity check before issuing
- Certified copy of a valid current national identity card.

Section B - proof of residential address (original or certified copy*)

- Utility bill (dated within the last three months, mobile phone bills are not acceptable)
- Most recent bank or building society statement or passbook
- Record of home visit (by suitable certifier, see below*)
- Local authority tax bill (current year)
- Mortgage statement (current)
- A tenancy contract or agreement.

Certification of Documents

When providing certified copies of documents, the person certifying the copy document must state the following:

'I hereby certify that this is a true and correct copy of the original document sighted by me and, where the document contains a photograph, the photograph is a true likeness of the individual.'

The person certifying the document must state the following:

- Full Name of Certifier
- Position/Title of Certifier
- Signature of Certifier
- Date of Certification – must be dated within the last 3 months
- Contact details – address, telephone number and email address of Certifier. Where more than one page of any document in relation to identification is provided, the certifiers must fully comply with the above on the first page and then sign and date each remaining page. NB: Certification must be of original documents; certified copies of faxes and copies of certified copies are not acceptable and will be rejected.

This certification must be undertaken by one of the following:

- Lawyer/Notary Public/Barrister who is a member of a recognised professional body
- An Embassy, Consulate or High Commission employee of the country of issue (acting in their official capacity)

Note: British Foreign and Commonwealth overseas missions will, in most cases, not provide this service.

- A member of the judiciary, a Senior Civil Servant, Accountant who is a member of a recognised professional body
- A Director, Officer or Manager of a regulated Financial Services Business operating in an equivalent jurisdiction (branch rubber stamp must be affixed)
- Serving Police Officer or Customs Officer (Office/Station rubber stamp must be affixed)
- An individual that is qualified to undertake certification services under the authority of the Certification and

The Direct Debit Guarantee

- This Guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that accept instructions to pay Direct Debits.
- If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your Direct Debit, Canaccord International Fund Managers Limited will notify you 10 working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed. If you request Canaccord International Fund Managers Limited to collect a payment, confirmation of the amount and date will be given to you at the time of the request.
- If an error is made in the payment of your Direct Debit, by Canaccord International Fund Managers Limited or your bank or building society, you are entitled to a full and immediate refund paid from your bank or building society.
- If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when Canaccord International Fund Managers Limited asks you to.
- You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by writing to your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us.
